FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care Hires Certified Nurse Practitioner

LANCASTER, Ohio (June 30, 2017)— Alicia Grilliot, certified nurse practitioner, has joined the Palliative Care Team at FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc.

Grilliot received her bachelor's in nursing from Ohio University in 2007, and a master's in nursing from Otterbein University in 2011 with a specialty in family practice. She started her journey in a family practice office, and has been practicing in the Palliative Care area for the past three years. She earned her Advanced Certification in Hospice and Palliative Nursing in 2016.

Palliative Care became her passion when she experienced the immediate impact it had on the quality of life of her patients.

"We are thrilled to welcome Alicia to our exceptional team," said Denise Bauer, FairHoPe President/CEO. "Her compassion with patients and desire to serve our community is inspiring to all who meet her."

Hospice and palliative care nursing emphasizes the physical, psychological, emotional, and spiritual needs of patients when facing a life-limiting illness and through bereavement. FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc. provides care through a multi-interdisciplinary team of experts providing a special kind of care for patients and families.
