FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care Celebrates Henderson 100 Years Young

LANCASTER, Ohio (February 14, 2017) — FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc. celebrated the 100th birthday of Wayne Henderson, long-time resident of Glenford, who now resides at Primrose Retirement Community. Wayne along with staff, family and friends enjoyed an afternoon of music, gifts and birthday cake. A special proclamation honoring the milestone was presented by Lancaster Mayor Dave Smith to commemorate the occasion.

“At FairHoPe, we celebrate life and believe making moments matter is important at any age,” said Denise Bauer, FairHoPe President/CEO. “We’re happy to have been able to play a part in making the day special for Wayne.”
