FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc. Appoints New Vice President

LANCASTER, Ohio (October 3, 2016)— FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc. is pleased to announce it has recently appointed Joyce Cox, MBA, MSN, CNP, OCN, CHPN, to Vice President. In her new role, Cox will work closely with FairHoPe CEO Denise Bauer as the organization continues to grow.

“Joyce’s commitment to quality hospice and palliative care and her vast clinical knowledge and expertise makes her an ideal vice president for our organization.” said Denise Bauer, FairHoPe CEO. “We look forward to the positive impact her new role will surely have as we continue to serve the hospice and grief needs of our community.”

Cox previously held the role of Director of Strategic Care & Community Relations at FairHoPe. She has a variety of clinical experience with over 30 years in the nursing field. Her background includes hospice, palliative, oncology, surgical and critical care.
