FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care Employee Achieves National Certification

LANCASTER, Ohio (July 6, 2016)— Susannah Coll, RN with FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc., recently achieved national board certification by the Hospice and Palliative Certification Center (HPCC). Certification is awarded to nurses who exemplify knowledge within the specialized areas of hospice and palliative care. Nurses must hold an unrestrictive, active license and have completed two years with over 1,000 hours of practice in the specialized field.

“This certification is a great recognition of Susannah’s commitment to quality hospice and palliative care,” said Denise Bauer, FairHoPe CEO. “FairHoPe is proud of her accomplishment.”

Hospice and palliative care nursing emphasizes the physical, psychological, emotional, and spiritual needs of patients when facing a life-limiting illness and through bereavement. FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc. provides care through a multi-interdisciplinary team of experts providing a special kind of care for patients and families.

“It was important to me to become certified because it recognizes that hospice and palliative care nursing requires a distinct skill set and knowledge base that truly makes it a specialty,” said Susannah. “In the six years since I became an RN, I did not find such profound professional fulfillment until I found hospice and I am committed to providing the highest level of care to patients and their families in the midst of terminal illness.”
