FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc.'s Annual Trash to Treasure Sale Raised Over $8,750

LANCASTER, Ohio (June 16, 2017) — FairHoPe Hospice & Palliative Care, Inc. held a Trash to Treasure Sale on Friday, June 9 and Saturday, June 10 to benefit the FairHoPe Hospice Memorial Fund. Hundreds of community members came to the Fairfield County Fairgrounds and purchased used items that needed a new home.

“At FairHoPe, we accept all patients regardless of their ability to pay,” said Denise Bauer, FairHoPe President/CEO. “We appreciate the tremendous support of our community and volunteers to make this event a success. They are truly helping us bring hospice care and comfort to families in need.”
